

St. Gregory's, Weld Bank.

BACHELORS'
TEA PARTY AND CONCERT
 SATURDAY, APRIL 21st, 1928.

RULES.

- No person allowed to be without a Serviette.
- No person allowed to use his or her spoon with the right hand.
- No two gentlemen allowed to sit together at the table.
- No gentleman allowed to touch his visible or invisible moustache.
- It is an offence for any lady to touch her hair.
- No lady to assist others or to help herself.
- No person allowed to say "Yes," or "No."
- No lady allowed to pass remarks about the waiters or trayholders.
- No person allowed to address the Policeman by any other name than "Copper."
- No person allowed to address the gentleman assisting at the tables by any other name but "Nippy."
- Any person not using their Serviette will be fined.
- No lady to make "Eyes" at "Nippy."
- No gentleman to light his own cigarette or pipe.

Half-penny Fines will be inflicted for infringement of any of the above Rules.
 All disputes to be settled by the Policeman; no Passive Resistance allowed.
 Any Person found making remarks about these Rules, or not paying any fine made against them, will be taken at once to the Police Court, where judgment will be passed. Bail being allowed on payment of 3d.

EXEMPTION TICKETS FROM FINES 3d. EACH.

Look out for the lucky Number.

Alfred Hill, Printer, Livery Street, Chorley.